

H.V. Evatt Memorial Dinner 2015 - with Lesley Hughes

Not just polar bears: Climate change as a social justice issue

Guest Speaker: Lesley Hughes

Master of Ceremonies: Trish Doyle, M.P.

Hosted by the Evatt Foundation in association with the Katoomba branch of the ALP & the Blue Mountains World Heritage Institute.

About Lesley Hughes

Professor Lesley Hughes is Pro Vice-Chancellor (Research Integrity and Development) and Distinguished Professor of Biology at Macquarie University, and a member of the Climate Change Council of Australia.

Professor Hughes is an expert on the effects of climate change on species and ecosystems, is a member of Climate Scientists Australia and the Wentworth Group of Concerned Scientists, and was a lead author for the UN's IPCC Fourth and Fifth Assessment Reports. She also won the 2014 Australian Government Eureka Prize for Promoting Understanding of Australian Science Research.

Date: 17 October 2015

Place: Carrington Hotel, Katoomba St, Katoomba

Time: 6.30 p.m. for 7.00 p.m.

Cost: $80 (includes dinner)

RSVP: sarah.shrubb@gmail.com or phone: 4784 3064 or 0418 649 497